DEDICATION

We can pay our parents no higher compliment than to dedicate our 1961 OUIJA to them. They have stood by our side lending encouragement through twelve long years of school. Their energy has been devoted to the task of preparing us to become better citizens.

Their sacrifices have been many. We shall never let the memory of their help be forgotten, but will strive to see that their hopes and dreams for our future are accomplished when we take our places as useful and worthy citizens. With these thoughts in mind, we proudly dedicate this edition to our parents.

CLASS HISTORY

by Priscilla Ewell

In the fall of 1948 many small children entered the halls of Wyoming Central School as the kindergarten pupils of Mrs. Nola Regan. Those small, amazed children didn't realize that they would one day have the unique honor of being the first class to graduate with the advantage of having thirteen years of education. The year has arrived that these students will graduate after thirteen years of books, work and fun.

The grade school years passed with the usual occurrences. Measles, mumps, chicken pox, and playground fights certainly made things far more interesting. Nevertheless, we shall always remember Miss Kohler, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Heron, Mrs. Winter, Mr. Parmalee, and Miss Derrick. They are very important to us because they built the foundation for the knowledge that we have and shall have.

Seventh grade made us feel like we were really "getting up in the world." Mr. Schoenthal soon convinced us that we really weren't as great as we thought we were.

The greatest problem of eighth grade was the regents. By brain and strain we overcame them with great triumph.

September of 1957 found us as Freshmen in Miss McGee's homeroom. At our first class meeting we chose Miss Shirley Stage and Mr. Harold Windus as advisors. Under their leadership we sold everyday stationery, Wyoming Central School tablets and pencils, and sponsored a very successful smorgasbord.

As Sophomores many felt relieved that this was the year that we didn't have to take history. There was more important business at hand because our two advisors had left Wyoming. We quickly solved the problem by choosing Mrs. Parker, who has been with us for the past three years, and Mrs. Hammond. Our projects as Sophomores included selling ice cream at the basketball games and taking orders for Christmas Cards.

Our Junior year was filled with many pleasant memories. We ordered our rings and barely had enough patience to wait for their arrival. We again took orders for Christmas cards, sold pop at the basketball games, and sold Valentines. The highlight of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet at the Genesee Falls Hotel with Assemblyman Harold L. Peet as guest speaker. Again we had to choose an advisor to take Mrs. Hammond's place and we chose Mr. Lucie.

At last the big year arrived after long waiting and hard work. We were Seniors! The idea of being Seniors wore off in about two weeks, and we really wondered why this business of being Seniors was supposed to be so spectacular. We immediately got down to business with plans to earn money for our trip to Washington. We sold magazines and set a new school record. For the third year we took orders for Christmas cards. In October we presented our play, "Papa Was a Preacher," under the direction of Mrs. Widdowson. We certainly had a wonderful time presenting our play and are indebted to Mrs. Widdowson for its great success. Our Hallowe'en party was loads of fun, and we made a good profit from it.

Our class has been very active in band, chorus, soccer, basketball, baseball, cheerleading, and FFA. We are indeed proud of our class record at Wyoming Central School. As we look into the future, we shall see our fellow classmates in farming, teaching, and the armed forces as well as many other professions. We only hope that we, as individuals will carry forth a good record in the future.

And now we extend our best wishes to the Juniors who will be the Class of 1962 of Wyoming Central School - the school that we love and shall never forget.

The Class of 1962 has quite an impressive record of worthy projects completed. We attribute our success to our industrious class officers and to our "work-together" spirit.

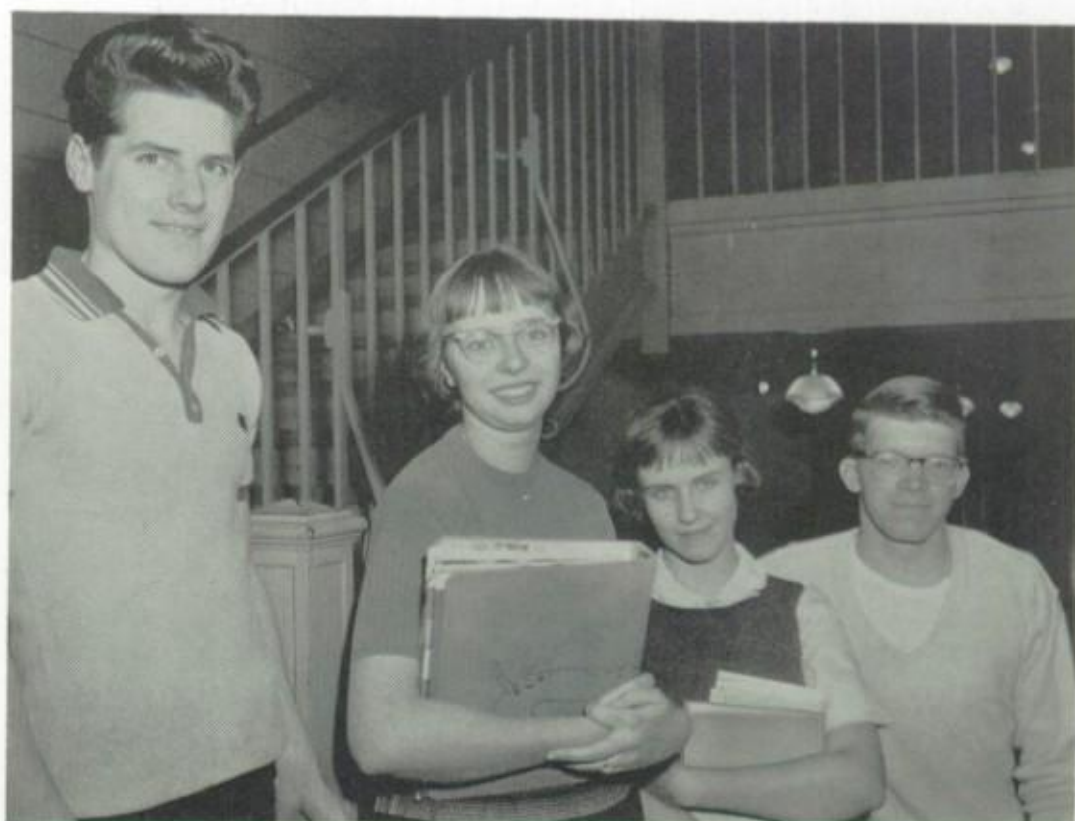

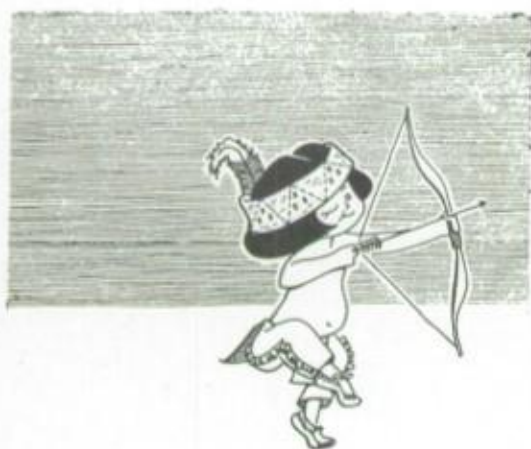

This year we added a home delivery service to our annual barbecue. This feature greatly increased our profits.

One of our greatest thrills was the selection of our class rings. Mrs. Parker will certainly be glad when we stop worrying about the rings during Chemistry. We continued our sales of sweatshirts. Also, we sold basketball-schedule pens.

We hope to sponsor a second dinner later this year. Of course, we are looking forward to our Junior-Senior Banquet in the spring.

The Class of 1962 wishes our Seniors the best-of-luck, now, and in the years to come.

Many thanks go to Mrs. Purga for her excellent assistance in helping us complete this yearbook. She has sacrificed much of her free time in working with us. Without her guidance and tire-less efforts, this publication would not be possible. We are greatly indebted to you, Mrs. Purga.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools received its charter in May of 1955.

The Faculty Council of the local chapter approved for membership during 1960-61, one Senior and five Juniors who met all qualifications.

Consistent scholarship of meritorious quality, service to the school, commendable citizenship plus general cooperation are criteria for membership. Our size-quota is based on our high school pupil registration.

The Wyoming Chapter promotes scholarship and college entrance for as many pupils as is possible. Its money-raising activities are limited to one or two minor projects.

BANQUET

The National Honor Society holds its formal, candle-light initiation of new members at the Annual Honor Banquet sponsored by the Student Council. Last year's banquet speaker was Judge John Conable. Guests were Principal and Mrs. Emil L. Purga and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Parker. James Parker of the Student Council was master-of-ceremonies.

The High School Student Council functioned very effectively throughout the year and was ably guided by President James Parker.

This invaluable student organization planned and presented several assemblies for secondary pupils. It made available and supervised after-game dances during basketball season. It sponsored the interclass track meet in the early fall.

One of its chief functions and goals was to promote better school citizenship, courtesy, and cooperation. Also, it contributed to the planning of better cafeteria lunches.

JOURNALISM CLUB

B. Wilkie, M. Robinson, M. Hudson, J. Wilson, N. Langdon, N. Martin, J. Wilson, Mrs. Langdon.

The newly-organized Journalism Club was headed by Mrs. Marion Langdon, who was its advisor. Club membership was limited to top-notch Juniors, and was extended on the basis of invitation only.

The seven-member club acted as staff for "The Eclipse," a new publication planned along journalistic as well as literary lines.

The staff was sparked by Woody Langdon, editor-in-chief. Considerable research was done on school newspaper format, policy, editing, and publishing, before a suitable style was selected for "The Eclipse."

Since club organization took place after midyear examination, only two issues of "The Eclipse" were published.

LIBRARY CLUB

FIRST ROW: N. Langdon, President; F. Moore, Vice-President; Mrs. Lincoln, D. Cornwall, Secretary; G. Ellis, Treasurer. SECOND ROW: A. Bailey, L. Washburn, L. Cook, W. Grisewood; G. Osterman, D. The Library Club for 1960-61, holds its meetings during the homeroom period on Fridays. Following the business meeting, the members discuss the various phases of library work and apply these techniques to practical experiences. They have fudge sales to finance the purchase of library pins and a book, presented as a gift to the library.

After fifteen hours of work in the library, (at the desk, shelving books, or arranging displays on the bulletin board or in the showcase), members receive library pins.

The club fosters good school spirit as well as being worthwhile to its members.

FIRST ROW: W. Berkemeier, Treasurer; W. Sage, Reporter; J. Richardson, President; H. Page, Sentinel; G. Newland, D. Sage, R. Berkemeier, Vice-President. SECOND ROW: Mr. Meier, W. Wallace, D. The Wyoming Chapter of the Future Farmers of America, through its varied activities, made an enviable record this year.

We started a calf project by purchasing two registered Holstein calves, which were given to James Richardson and Gary Ellis. Douglas Sage placed first in livestock judging at the New York State Fair; Gerald Newland placed tenth in milk judging. Douglas and Ronald Sage earned a bronze award on behalf of the New York State F. F. A. in livestock judging at Kansas City, Missouri. Patrick Powers won a trip to the Eastern States Exposition, as a member of the New York State poultry group.

Reed Kingsley and Gerald Newland were in charge of corn demonstration, where three varieties of corn were compared for grain.

Our chapter sent seven boys to the New York F.F.A. camp, namely, Gary Ellis, Donald Strathearn, Philip Richardson, Robert Berkemeier, Michael Howard, Charles Powers and Douglas Sage.

An American Institution

The drug store has been called an American institution. . . and rightly so. The word "institution" implies stability, character, service to the public.

We like you to think of our pharmacy that way. . . as an institution dedicated to helping maintain the health of each individual and the community as a whole.

It's a big responsibility. . . but we stand ready always to serve you in that capacity---as a reliable, professional source for quality health supplies.
